

House of India Volunteer Form

The House of India is dedicated towards creating a greater awareness of India's rich and varied culture in the San Diego community. Through active participation in the events organized by the House of Pacific Relations in Balboa Park, the house strives to promote and showcase Indian art, history, music, dance and ethnic food. This allows us to share the joy and spirit of Indian traditions in San Diego. The House of India also provides an opportunity to interact with other cultures and promote universal understanding and appreciation.
